Welcome to term 3. It is amazing to think that we have passed the halfway mark of the year already. I trust that the holidays allowed you to have a break from routine. A school is a very lonely place during holidays and it was wonderful to welcome the students back on Monday morning; their chatter and laughter certainly make the buildings ‘come alive’. The staff are also refreshed and are prepared for the new term. We once again look forward to your support as we aim to offer a program which stimulates, enriches and motivates the students so that their learning is broad and deep.

Blessings,
Shane

Student Led Conference: On Tuesday and Wednesday next week we will be holding Student Led Conferences. These are a great opportunity for parents to visit and hear from their children what they are learning (and experience it), discuss aspects of your child’s work and hopefully gain an insight into your child as a learner. Further information is included in the newsletter.

Newsletter: As you know the newsletter is currently distributed in hard copy every fortnight. Many parents have commented over time that the newsletter should be distributed online as it suits the way information is accessed for them. The preparation of a hard copy newsletter takes a lot of resources (paper being one). Therefore a decision has been made to now distribute the newsletter as an online document. Parents / caregivers etc. who are to receive the newsletter will be informed via email that it is ready for viewing (we will use the email as given to us via our database). The newsletter will look completely different than it currently does now and I understand that one of the features of the newsletter for some families (and students) is the front page which always has photos of students and their activities. This page will continue as a gallery page in the online version – which you will be able to print should you so desire. If you still require a hard copy of the newsletter sent home could you please inform the office. This edition of the newsletter will be the last paper which you will receive as we will move to an online copy from the next edition (Wednesday 8th August).

Homework policy: Over the last term the staff have been reviewing the Homework policy. After much discussion the final review has been completed and is available on the school website for your perusal. One of the aims of the review was to provide consistency and clarity across the school in regards to the expectations with this. GGLPS maintains its stance as a ‘no homework’ school but has put processes in place for students to complete some tasks at home. Key changes include:

- ‘Homework’ at GGLPS will now be known as ‘home inquiry’;
- Any home inquiry expectations will be set out in the weekly cluster newsletter;
- Yr 5 and 6 are seen as transition years in preparation for high school requirements.

The revised policy is available for viewing under the Parent Portal section of the website (under policies).

Staffing: There have been a number of slight adjustments in the area of staffing over the last few weeks.

- Ruth Carter: Ruth has been absent for a large amount of this year. Ruth has informed us that she will be on leave for a little longer. After a number of years of putting her whole self into her role here at GGLPS she has decided to take some time out for herself to focus on her health. We look forward to seeing her return to GGLPS in the future. Ruth’s key role in the school was that of curriculum and PYP leader (Learning and Teaching coordinator).
  - Jayne Zadow has been appointed to the role of Learning and Teaching Coordinator for the rest of 2018 (2 days per week). Her classroom duties will be taken up by Kayla Dametto. Parents of students in Jayne’s class have received further communication about this.
  - Stephen Paech will continue to teach in year 4 on Fridays for the rest of this term.
- Sue Prideaux: Sue is on Long Service Leave for the first five weeks of this term. John Greenwood will replace Sue.
- Joy Doecke: Joy remains on leave for this term. Kayla Dametto will take on Joy’s duties for this term.
- Elaine Baldock: Elaine will commence Long Service Leave from next week (for six weeks). Kerry Abraham will replace Elaine during this time.

Sign in system: Over the next few weeks we are trialling a new sign in system for all visitors to the school. Parents who are on the school site between 9:15 am and 2:45 pm will be asked to use this system as well. It is important that we know who is onsite in the case of evacuations/invacuations. Signing in (and out) will occur at the front desk using the iPad. A sticker will be issued and needs to be visible on clothing while on school grounds.

Student Led Conferences
A highly effective part of reporting progress to parents includes the opportunity for students to share their learning with their parents/caregivers. These are called student led conferences (SLC) and are led by the student themselves. They will take place in week 2 of term 3, Tuesday 31st July and Wednesday 1st August between 3.30pm – 6.30pm. Book via https://www.schoolinterviews.com.au and paste in the code me8mc. The conference format will depend on the age of the student and everyone involved must understand the purpose of the SLC and their role.

Purpose of student conferences:

For the student to:
- share their learning journey with their parents
- demonstrate a deeper understanding of their learning with evidence
- have quality time on a one to one basis with their parent/parents/caregivers.

Therefore:
- the discussion about the learning will be between parent/parents/caregivers and student
- students are responsible for sharing their learning

For the parents/caregivers to:
- see the learning process their child/children have gone through.
- have quality time on a one to one basis with their child/children.

Therefore:
- parents are encouraged to help guide the conversation through the provided prompts and suggested questions.
- offer verbal and written feedback to their child/children.

The role of the teacher is:
- to guide and prepare the students to become confident participants and share their
- to support and guide parents with prompts and suggested questions encouraging student/parent communication.
- not to engage in parent/teacher conversation, parents wishing to discuss their child’s learning with the teacher will be asked to make an appointment at another time.

Student led practicalities:
- SLC bookings can be made now online
- Source and book the baby sitters or book students into GGOSH ($2 per child) through the website
